Excerpt of pertinent information:

At a meeting in Paris, in June 1950, at which Visoianu, Crihan, Mihai Raut and some other National Peasants were present, Crihan reminded Raut that he (Raut) had offered him a stipendium of 25,000 French francs monthly, in the name of General Radescu. Crihan added that he had refused that offer because he could not accept to be on the payroll of General Radescu. Mihai Raut seemed very embarrassed, but he did not utter a denial.
